The new Practical Law Global features:

- 1 Seamless navigation between your local content and global content
- 2 New global practice area taxonomy
- 3 Access to Global In-House Resources from the home page
- 4 Option to customise the countries you use most often in the Featured Countries section
- 5 Country Q&A comparison tool to compare answers to key questions across multiple jurisdictions
